Welcome Lesley Krauland, Deacon!

Lesley Krauland is the Deacon assigned to us by Bishop Mariann. Please look at Lesley’s article on page 4 to learn more about her.

Welcome Sally Lermond, Deacon Intern!

Sally was born and raised in Scotland. She spent much of her early married life in France, Belgium and Iran as a State Department spouse before returning to the United States to raise her children. For close to 25 years, Sally enjoyed the delights of being Admissions Director of The Barnesville School in upper Montgomery County, and following that career she embarked on the world of finance when she took on the role of Client Specialist for a wealth management firm in Bethesda.

Sally’s call to the ministry of the Diaconate became a reality over three years ago, when her then priest suggested she formalize her call to become a postulant and embark upon the required seminary and Deacon School training. God willing and after serving St. Luke’s through mid-June this year as a deacon intern shadowing Lesley, she will be ordained at the National Cathedral along with eight other members of her Cohort III deacon candidates on September 19, 2020.

Sally has four “amazing” grandchildren whom she finds every excuse in the world to be with and to whom she introduces her personal passions of gardening and cooking, music and reading. Currently Sally discerns her call as ministry to the aging but knows to stay tuned in—since God is always likely to spring surprises on us.

Officially Introducing Patricia De Souza

Along with Lesley (Deacon) and Sally (Deacon Intern), there is another face that you’ve been seeing around St. Luke’s on Sunday mornings. Patricia De Souza is an off-duty Montgomery County Police Officer who has been brought on in an interim capacity while the vestry and a working group develop a plan for security at St. Luke’s. We want to be welcoming and we want people to feel safe. Luckily, Patricia has a gift at helping people with both! We are particularly thankful for Patricia’s mental health First Aid training, and her willingness to help around the parish, holding babies and moving tables. She has been a blessing to many already and we are glad to have Patricia with us while we figure out our approach moving forward.

Financial Health

I love the term “financial health.” I love it because it conveys that any individual or organization’s financial situation is just as complex as their physical health. You could have a strong heart but aching joints that limit your mobility. Are you healthy? You could be able to run a marathon, but battle digestive issues. Are you healthy? Likewise, you could have a house worth lots of money but have no cash flow because you’ve lost your job. Or you could have a steady job that covers your monthly expense but no savings to cover those emergency car repairs. In either case, are you financially stable?

At St. Luke’s our financial health is equally as complex. By some measures, we are doing extremely well when compared to other parishes. We routinely receive 99% of the income that has been pledged each year. In 2018 and 2019, we received 104% and 106.5% of what had been pledged. This is a measure of stability that other churches would love to have. (Thank you!) Likewise, we have substantial reserve funds, both those designated to go towards the upkeep and replacement costs of our building and those “rainy day” funds that are limited for use to help us weather unexpected hardships.

But by other measures, we are in a more precarious situation. Our biggest challenge is that for the past five years, we have not started each year with enough anticipated revenue to cover our anticipated expenses. We have been starting each year with a forecasted deficit. This is not sustainable financial health. Many of you will recall that we held a special giving campaign called the “Bridge Fund” in early 2017 to help address these gaps.

We were extremely fortunate that in 2018 and 2019, with staff transitions, some underspending and some significant one-time gifts to the church, we ended the years with surpluses, negating our need to spend all of the Bridge Fund. (See 2019 Year End Budget on page 9.) These surpluses, along with the remaining Bridge Fund dollars, have cushioned the impact of the coming year’s budget gap and have allowed us to make ongoing contributions to our reserve funds. But the fact remains that St. Luke’s is not yet at a point where we can produce a budget at the beginning of the year showing enough revenues to cover our expenses. The 2020 Budget that the Vestry approved in January is no exception. (Full 2020 Budget will be included in the March ACTS.)

We are close, however. Our anticipated gap for 2020 is just over $14,000, and we are optimistic that we will close some of this gap with outstanding pledges and additional donations from outside groups using our building. Any gap that remains at the end of the year will be covered with surplus funds from 2019. So, this is not a crisis. We do not need to rush to the hospital. We do not need to make drastic cuts in our spending that would undermine the good work we are doing at St. Luke’s. Instead, the Vestry will be exploring ways to grow our revenues with the goal of producing a balanced budget for 2021.

One last note, between the 2018 and 2019 surpluses, St. Luke’s had about $73,000 available to invest back into the parish. The Vestry chose to tithe a portion of this surplus by making a one-time gift of $7,000 to St. Luke’s Community Engagement Program. In addition, we will be contributing to our building replacement fund, completing some much-needed repairs, and allocating funding for security enhancements. The remaining funds will be held for use as needed at the Vestry’s discretion.

Is St. Luke’s financially healthy? The answer is not simple. But with your amazing generosity and your commitment to sustaining St. Luke’s as a radically welcoming community where people are transformed by God’s love, I can’t help but feel the answer is yes.
Lesley Krauland, Deacon

Hello St. Luke’s Family! I’m thrilled to have joined your parish community on January 5, 2020, the Eve of the Feast of the Epiphany, when the visit of the Three Wise Men and the Incarnation of Jesus Christ is joyously celebrated. In this special time I look forward to know you and learn about your life in this place, your vision and dreams for this parish and community to which you belong in Montgomery County and the Washington, DC region, and to what God is calling us to do in this growing and evolving new time.

An infant or child is greatly shaped by the family she joins as she grows up. When an adult joins, she brings a wealth of life experience to the family which usually takes time to share because there is so much of it! As adults, interestingly, we often discover commonalities which set a wonderful foundation upon which our relationships together can grow, thrive, and mutually shape each other. I have already discovered that there are several alumna from my alma mater, Mount Holyoke College, and one person who grew up in the neighborhood adjoining mine in Alexandria, VA (and who also shares my middle name!). The world is small, yet large and diverse. Thank goodness for the bridges God gives us that help us connect and build bonds and relationships.

As you may know, I am a vocational deacon in the Episcopal Diocese of Washington. Unlike transitional deacons who are ordained persons on the way to priesthood, I am a permanent deacon who has taken orders to serve in a non-stipendiary leadership role in church and diocesan life. I was ordained by Bishop Mariann in September 2018 and served with The Church of the Epiphany downtown for my first year in ordained ministry, working with the downtown poor and supporting parish and community life. I have been called to St. Luke’s and am delighted that Bishop Mariann and the Holy Spirit have placed me here to serve with you as Christ’s ears, eyes, hands, feet, and heart in this place.

Like most if not all of us, my family of origin has had a tremendous influence on shaping me into the person you meet today. My parents and ancestors are religious, adventurous, faithful, and spiritual people. They include devout Roman Catholics, active Presbyterians, and Orthodox Jews—all who love God and value education, hard work, and family. From this colorful cultural quilt which serves as my background, I am sensitive to the beauty, the power and the challenges that diversity invites and cultivates.

My husband, Ed, is a native of Pittsburgh. We were married at St. Patrick’s Episcopal Church in DC and together have four lovely sons, ages 24-16. Our boys live in Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, and Bethesda, where the youngest one is a sophomore at Whitman High School.

As this new year and new decade begin, the needs of communities and the world cry out for attention and action as fires and earthquakes change neighborhoods; disease and drugs take lives; violence, injustice, and politics threaten security, dignity, health, and freedom. I recognize the remarkable work in which St. Luke’s is already engaged in the community to address Basic Needs right now, Human Rights, Dignity & Safety during the summer, and then to Look to Our Future next Fall. Your concern for the poor, sharing of resources, and recognition of the true source of life and sustenance reflects your Christian faith. We are blessed in Christ’s discipleship. As family we will together serve God and God’s church, to make God’s saving word and love fully known.

Coffee Hour Munchies
Do you enjoy coffee hour after church? Do you know how the baked goods and fruit get there? You bring them! Of course, you can bring cookies, fruit, or other delicious snacks any Sunday. At St. Luke’s, we have a tradition of giving parishioners an opportunity to bring something regularly using an alphabetical reminder system by last name.

Here is how we break it out over the 4 to 5 Sundays each month:

1st Sunday A-C  2nd Sunday D-H
3rd Sunday J-L  4th Sunday M-P
5th Sunday R-Z

*Of course, there are 5 Sundays in only 4 months each year; we encourage parishioners in this group to pick another Sunday in the other months on which to bring something to coffee hour (if possible).

Thank all of you for participating as you are able!

Dorothy Day Transitional Shelter for Men
Parishioners of St Luke’s have been preparing and taking a meal to the Men’s Shelter on the first Friday of every month for more than 26 years. The Shelter for both men and women has moved from Bethesda to Rockville. We need some additional chefs. If you would be interested in providing part of the meal, delivered near church, please talk to Clay Miller.

Thank you.

Women of St. Luke’s
I am sorry to report that the members of Women of St. Luke’s have decided to discontinue our regular monthly meetings. Some of us are unable to drive anymore and some are unable to attend due to health problems. We have had a good and long association with many good memories.

Broadening Our Horizons
Cruising the Danube; International Rowing Competition

Join Jack and Margie Orrick on Sunday, February 23 in the Reaves Room to hear about their recent biking and river cruise along the Danube. They started in Budapest and traveled through five countries before ending in Prague. Highlights included touring (by bike and on foot) Budapest, Bratislava, Vienna, Linz, Salzburg, Passau, Regensburg, and Prague, visiting the Schoenbrunn Palace and gardens, and attending a local Bohemian folklore dinner.

Margie will also share her passion for rowing. Before the river cruise began, she participated in an international rowing competition on Hungary's Lake Velence, southwest of Budapest.

Light snacks will be served at 11:15 followed by the presentation. All are welcome. For more information, contact Susie Casson.

The Booklovers March selection is Why Religion? A Personal Story by Elaine Pagels.

From Amazon, “In the wake of great personal tragedy, National Book Award Winner and New York Times bestselling author Elaine Pagels reflects on the persistence and nature of belief and why religion matters.

“Why does religion still exist in the twenty-first century? And why do so many people—even, and especially, those who challenge religion—continue to argue about the questions it raises? These questions took on a new urgency for Pagels when she was dealing with unimaginable loss—the death of her young son, followed a year later by the shocking loss of her husband. Here she interweaves a personal story with the work that she loves, illuminating how, for better and worse, religious traditions have shaped how we understand ourselves; how we relate to one another; and, most important, how we get through the most difficult challenges we face. A provocative and deeply moving memoir from one of the most compelling religious thinkers at work today, Why Religion? explores the spiritual dimension of human experience.”

The meetings are Tuesday, March 17th at 7:30 pm at Phil Taylor and Marie Holbrook’s home and Thursday, March 19th at 10:30 am at Deb Marks’ home.

Please join us.

Supper Group

“These are the times that try men’s souls.” In our times, this famous quote could refer to February weather, the political situation, the environment—and on and on. Doesn’t it seem prudent, then, to look for relief from these trials?

“A problem shared is a problem halved. A joy shared is a joy doubled” Time for another SUPPER GROUP, i.e. potluck dinner to which all adult St. Lukers are invited. Double our Joy? All we need is the venue.

“DATES?,” you ask. Please choose from Saturdays:

February 8 (post-Groundhog Day theme?)

OR

February 15 (Valentine?),

OR

February 22 (Presidents’ Day?)

OR

February 29 (Leap Day?)

Or maybe you’d prefer combining all these: Presidents leaping to deliver valentines to Punxsutawney Phil? In truth, a theme for the evening isn’t necessary—but a venue is. If you’d be interested in making some delicious Christian fellowship possible, in making some cold, lonely people happy, please contact Treva Miller. Let’s get together!

Loaves & Fishes

Please join us Sunday, February 2 in Ludlum Hall between services to assemble 200-250 winter Blessing Bags for guests of the Loaves & Fishes program. They will include snacks and hygiene items, as well as cold-weather supplies. We’ll continue after the 10 am service if needed and will deliver the bags during the 3rd Sunday weekend in February. The Blessing Bags are very popular!

The Loaves & Fishes feeding program has provided hot meals to those in need for 52 years, and is located in Columbia Heights, DC as a ministry of St. Stephen’s and the Incarnation Episcopal Church. St. Luke’s has served lunch on the 3rd Sunday of the month and Labor Day since 1982. This activity is part of the Basic Needs cluster, under the umbrella of our Community Engagement program.

Questions? Please contact Marta Montoro.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Be The Church, December 2019

Samaritan Ministry’s 2020 Next Step Breakfast!

Samaritan Ministry’s annual Next Step Breakfast at the National Press Club is set for Thursday, March 12, beginning at 7:30 am. The event is over promptly at 9 am, or whenever you need to leave. We often have a group going on the metro. Join us! Please see parish reps DeAtley Barish or Peter Stelnyk for more information or to sign up.

This year’s event highlights the essence of Samaritan Ministry: Participant Antoinette Green, whose life has been turned around since she first encountered Samaritan Ministry, will share her story. And, like so many who volunteer with the Next Step program, Gloria Ducker will share the impact of Samaritan Ministry on her life.

St Luke’s will host at least one table. Although it may disrupt your day, you’ll find the morning event is a chance to pause and think about those who need help—and how to help them.

Come with us!
